

Practice Sentences for Understanding Noun Cases

1. The queen {_____} gave water {_____} to the sailors {_____}
2. Crowds {_____} filled the roads {_____}.
3. The roads {_____} were filled.
4. The poet's {_____} money {_____} will be seen on the island {_____}.
5. Have you seen the poets' {_____} money {_____}?
6. We considered the reputation {_____} of the queen {_____} and presented the wreaths {_____} to the sailors {_____}.
7. The sailor's {_____} torches {_____} had terrified the poets {_____} standing on the gate {_____}.
8. You are now walking into the island's {_____} water {_____}.

9. The women {_____} are presenting a book about penalties {_____} to the sailors {_____}.
10. Had the women {_____} desired the island's {_____} water {_____} or the money {_____} of the poet {_____}?
11. My country {_____} is an island {_____}.
12. My country {_____} is on the island {_____}.
13. The streets {_____} will be filled and sailors {_____} will hold both the queen's {_____} money {_____} and her crowns {_____}.
14. Which islands {_____} have a good reputation {_____}?
15. You are a poet {_____} but I am a queen {_____}! Give that crown {_____} to the women {_____}.
16. I am a poet {_____} and a queen {_____}. Back off!

17. The queen {_____}, an excellent poet {_____}, lived in your country {_____}.
18. The queen's {_____} sailors {_____} saw the gate
{_____}, but walked onto the road {_____}.
19. I should really have had concern {_____} about money
{_____} but the sailors {_____} gave a torch
{_____} to the island's {_____} women
{_____}.
20. The sailors are going to crown the queen {_____} of the women {_____}.
21. Have you considered giving the poets' {_____} money
{_____} to the woman {_____}?
22. He considers his reputation {_____} and shouts about the woman's {_____} beauty {_____}.
23. The women {_____} will walk slowly on the road
{_____} but you will bring water {_____} to the poet
{_____}.

24. We will have seen the island's {_____} beauty
{_____}.

25. The poets' {_____} country {_____} had a very good reputation {_____}.