

ADJECTIVE PRACTICE

English	Usage in Sentence	Latin Form
large crown	direct object
happy lives	subject
famous women's to/for the blind poet evil queen's
bitter feelings	direct object
Roman money	ablative
to/for the good women
famous island	subject
beautiful gift	subject
healthy girl	direct object
much glory	subject
harsh penalties	direct object
great delay	subject
happy inhabitants	ablative
wretched jealousies	subject to the beautiful man
good reputations	direct object
many torches	ablative
famous words	subject to/for the wretched sailor

famous gate
right eye	direct object
great concern
Roman crowds	ablative
beautiful shape	direct object
bright moon	subject
wretched nothing	direct object
right road (road on the right)	subject free boy's
evil wind	ablative
beautiful plain	subject
Roman wars	direct object
many torches	subject
good girl	direct object
harsh punishments	ablative
healthy woman	subject
bitter anxiety	direct object
good ambush	subject
wretched teardrop	direct object to/for the famous poet
Roman country	subject
(by means of) the large swords		